

Position Title:	Music Instructor – Trumpet
Prepared:	December 2023
Reports to:	Head of Music
Prepared by:	Director of Human Resources

Position Purpose

The role of the Music Instructor is to act as the primary music mentor for students who elect to learn an instrument or voice in private music lessons.

Position Status

A permanent part time term time salaries position, as per the individual contract of employment.

The Full Time Equivalent (FTE), stated on the individual contract, is calculated using the following elements:

private lessons, classroom tutoring, accompaniment of orchestras/ensembles, music concerts/recitals, music rehearsals, timetabling, report writing, compliance training, concert/recital organisation, staff meetings, professional learning (including music staff conference days), attendance at School events, co-curricular activities, music camps and other duties as determined by the Employer as necessary for the Music Instructor to perform the role.

It is expected that the hours of work will be within the College's normal hours of work, however the nature of the role will, at times, require your attendance at rehearsals and performances, often outside these hours.

This position is for approximately 1 day per week.

Specific to this role

The position consists of the following:

- Teaching trumpet to students of all ages from beginner to advanced
- Preparing students comprehensively for AMEB music exams, annual music recitals and other performance opportunities during the year
- A willingness to engage students in a variety of genres and styles
- Preparing students where appropriate for ensembles
- Proactively working to increase the numbers of quality trumpet students at the College

Every instructor has a responsibility to keep accurate student attendance records. In addition, each instructor must keep a detailed record of the progress of every student and provide written reports to parents throughout the year as a part of the online continuous reporting system at St Leonard's College.

Duties & Essential Job Functions

Task	Expectations
Private Lessons	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide weekly lessons The regularity of weekly lessons for students is of significant importance to the College. In cases where a music instructor is unable to fulfil their regular weekly teaching duties due to other commitments, this must be advised to, and negotiated with, the Head of Music at the earliest possible time. • Timetabling Timetables must be prepared for terms 2, 3 and 4 before the end of the previous term so that they can be uploaded into SYNERGETIC, the College data base. Timetables for term 1 must be completed by the end of week 2 of term 1. Instructors are encouraged to use a temporary timetable for the first two weeks of term 1. All lesson times are to be entered onto SYNERGETIC. • Marking the roll Music instructors must mark their SYNERGETIC rolls as soon as possible. For lessons in the morning, the absences must be entered before 11.00am. All other absences must be completed prior to departing the College on the day of any lessons.
Reporting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each term the music instructor is required to write a report for each of their private music students. • When involved in instrumental tutoring for classroom programs, the music instructor will give feedback to the classroom teacher.
Recitals	All private music students are strongly encouraged to perform at the Annual Music Recitals, and it is an expectation that music instructors are available at some stage on that day to host their students' recitals.
Ensembles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Instructor participation Instructors may be asked, and are encouraged to, lead or assist in one or more of the many ensembles that form part of the College's cocurricular ensemble program. These occur on a weekly basis during term time. • Student participation All students in years 5 to 12 who take private music lessons are required to participate in a core ensemble. It is essential that each music instructor is aware of their students' ensemble involvement and counsel them carefully as to the variety of musical opportunities appropriate to them. Music Instructors must inform the Head of Music immediately if there is a student who is not fulfilling their core ensemble requirement. These students will be given the opportunity to join a core ensemble but, should they choose not to do so, their lessons will be suspended or withdrawn.
Classroom Tutoring	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students from years 3 to 7 participate in instrumental or choral tuition as part of their classroom music program. Music Instructors form part of this program as an instrumental or choral tutor of small groups of students.

Other	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Music instructors will negotiate a learning program with each student that considers all aspects of the student's music learning. External examinations such as AMEB are encouraged. Instructors are encouraged to meet with the Head of Music if they wish their students to undergo a different Music Assessment Program. • Music instructors may be asked by the Head of Music to participate in Music Camp, excursions or extra concerts and performances. • Music staff must attend the annual music staff meeting held at the start of the school year in January. College identification photos will be taken during this time. • Piano Accompanying may be required by some instructors where appropriate. • Any extra hours, not including a change to the overall FTE, must be preapproved. These hours must be discussed with the Head of Music and approved in advance of the activity. These hours are then entered into ConnX and approved by the Head of Music.
